VARIEGATED HOSTA

*Hosta are listed by height from smallest to largest

SUN TOLERANT HOSTA

Hosta thrive in partial shade; however, some Hosta are more sun tolerant than others when grown with enough moisture. The varieties listed below have the potential to tolerate ¾ to full sun, but they may still show some burning and bleaching in hot, dry conditions. In sunny locations, expect that blue Hosta may look greener, green varieties may look lighter, and gold varieties may look brighter.

August Moon	Gold Standard	Prairie's Edge
Blue Angel	Guacamole	Queen Josephine
Brother Stefan	Halcyon	Regal Splendor
Cathedral Windows	June	Royal Standard
Elegans	June Spirit	Sagae
Fragrant Bouquet	Krossa Regal	So Sweet
Francee	Liberty	Stained Glass
Fried Bananas	Maui Buttercups	Sum and Substance
Fried Green Tomatoes	Paradigm	Sun Power
Hadspen Blue	Patriot	Touch of Class
	Paul's Glory

SLUG RESISTANT HOSTA

Hosta with thick, or corrugated leaves, or a vase-shape, tend to be more slug resistant. Avoid mulching around Hosta once the canopy is formed, since mulch can provide slugs a home.

Abiqua Drinking Gourd	El Nino	Maui Buttercups
August Moon	Elegans	Mighty Mouse
Aureomarginata	Frances Williams	Mini Skirt
Big Daddy	Great Expectations	Neptune
Blue Angel	Hadspen Blue	Paradigm
Blue Ivory	Halcyon	Prairie Sky

Clear Fork River Valley	Key West	Sagae
Dream Weaver	Komodo Dragon	Sum and Substance
Earth Angel	Krossa Regal	Sun Power
	Liberty	Touch of Class
	Loyalist	Wishing Well
	Lakeside Paisley Print

MINIATURE HOSTA

A charming group of small Hosta sought after by collectors and connoisseurs. Use in containers, rock gardens, along pathways and the front of a perennial border where their diminutive form can be fully appreciated.

Blue Elf	Mighty Mouse	Pandora's Box
Blue Mouse Ears	Mini Skirt	School Mouse
Church Mouse		Sun Mouse

FRAGRANT FLOWERED HOSTA

Plant these Hosta along paths and around decks, windows and doors where their fragrance can be appreciated. The fragrance intensifies in the evening hours.

Cathedral Windows	Guacamole
Fragrant Blue	Royal Standard
Fragrant Bouquet	So Sweet
Fried Bananas	Stained Glass
Fried Green Tomatoes
